One of the best.

He has borne his cross,
He has gained his crown,
Though he lies in a far-off grave,
We think of his life, a duty done,
Manly, unselfish, and brave.

Never the lotus closes,
Never the willowl wake,
But a soul goes out on the east wind
That died for Britain's sake.

—(Inserted by Charles R. Whitelaw, railway station, Goornong.)
